FRIDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 24.

TREASURE FOUND.—A dispatch from Onancock says: Persons arriving here from Pungoteague report the finding of a large amount of buried treasure by Lorenzo Mears on a farm on Naudua creek, in the lower part of Accomack. Mears lives on the farm as a tenant, and is said to have found the treasure while digging a hole for a gate-post. Mears kept the matter a secret till a little boy living with him went to Pungoteague and told several persons there that Mears had dug up an iron pot full of gold and silver which two men could hardly carry. Old people living in that vicinity recall the fact that many years ago persons came from England and spent much time and money in excavating on this farm for money which they said had been buried there during the Revolutionary war by a wealthy English resident of Accomack, who went to England during the war and never returned to Virginia. Mears declines to give positive information regarding the find and the amount, and the exact nature of the treasure cannot be ascertained. Several of his neighbors say the treasure found is large and consists of old English coins of gold and silver. Two of these coins have been seen, one stamped with the image of Charles II., the other George III. The report has created much interest and comment, and several persons from Onancock have visited the scene of the reported find, but have been unable to bring back definite information. The whole thing is regarded as a mystery.

A DESTITUTE FAMILY OF TWENTY.—Superintendent Dean of the Anti-Cruelty Society went to Verona yesterday to investigate a case in that neighborhood that had been referred to him. A blacksmith by occupation was living in a four-roomed house with his wife and eighteen children and six grandchildren, with little or nothing to eat. His wife died, leaving him with ten children ranging in years from 21 to some months old, and after a short period of mourning he married a widow with seven children, whose ages range in about the same scope as those of his own. Since this last marriage another child has been born, making a family of twenty persons, and all of them living in a house of four rooms.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

The capital stock of this company is $625,000, divided into 625,000 shares of $1 each.

The company is incorporated under the laws of West Virginia, and the stock is non-assessable, and carries with it no personal liability to the holder.

The GOLD MINING COMPANY (location, Music Mountains, A. T.) is as sound a mining enterprise as was ever placed on the market, and its possibilities have never been exceeded. Every share should double in value within a year, and they may quadruple, as they are based on property that would ordinarily have been capitalized ten (10) times as great on account of its known richness and promise.

The shares are made small so that any one can invest. Subscriptions for five shares are as welcome as those for hundreds.

Every dollar of earnings will go to the stockholders in dividends, as there is nothing else that they can be used for.

A Wisewell mill, capacity 20 tons per day, with powerful machinery, has been purchased and will be on the ground ready for erection at the mine within the next thirty days.

The solid basis upon which the company is founded and the practical proofs of the richness of the mine have already secured the confidence of the public, and the stock has steadily advanced in selling value. Within the last few days bona fide sales have been made AT PAR.

There is no better stock on the market for a permanent investment. For full information in regard to this Mine apply to the
